

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

By Sir Kristoff Mortier KOR
Diamond Chapter

June 16, 2012

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

ORIGINAL LINING FROM RIZAL'S OVERCOAT
Marie Modo
This is a piece of the original overcoat of Rizal, preserved for over a hundred years before coming into the possession of fashion designer John Abada. It is the basis for the materials used in the replica.

University of Southern Philippines Foundation, Inc.
Cebu City 6000, Philippines • +63 32 255 4111 local 105 & 414 2111

CERTIFICATION

This is to certify that the object enclosed in this frame is a piece of cloth from the inner lining of Dr. Jose Rizal's winter coat (Philippine National Dress).

The cloth fell off during the process of study conducted by fashion designer John Abada, who was appointed by the UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN PHILIPPINES FOUNDATION, INC. to do the replica of Dr. Jose Rizal's winter coat. The original coat was exhibited at the Royal Museum in Cebu City in connection with the 100th anniversary of the Philippine Revolution.

The said piece of cloth was awarded to Mr. Abada for preservation by the UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN PHILIPPINES FOUNDATION, INC. as a memento of his patriotic contribution for the Designers' Commission in 1994.

John Abada
Chairman
Designers' Commission
University of Southern Philippines Foundation, Inc.

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

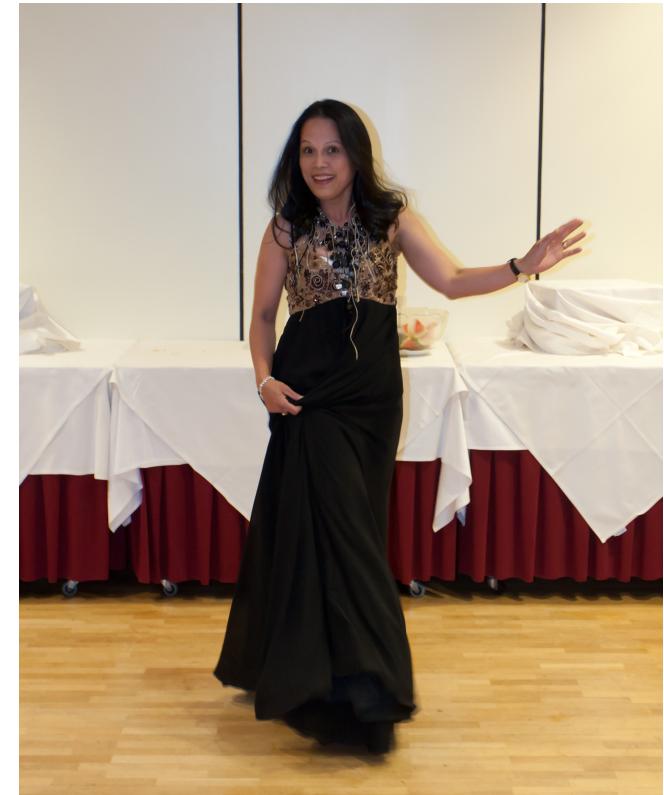

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

Dr. Rizal's Travelling Museum

